

Susan Tingley, NBMG Senior Cartographer Emeritus, passed away on Saturday, December 15th, 2018. Susan worked with the Nevada Bureau of Mines and Geology from ~1972 to 2004 and is widely acclaimed with building the foundation for modern cartography at NBMG, having led NBMG into the digital age. Susan was a long serving member of the Nevada State Board on Geographic Names, including serving several years as executive secretary. Susan was instrumental in building the Geographic Names Information System database for the state of Nevada.